RBI KYC Master Direction Update

Banks must review high-risk customer KYC every 6 months.

Banks must maintain digital audit logs for all customer verification activities.

Banks must retain audit logs for a minimum period of 5 years.

Banks must implement automated alerts for overdue high-risk KYC reviews.

Compliance teams must submit a quarterly KYC compliance status report to senior management.

Any exceptions to high-risk customer review timelines must be documented and approved by the Compliance Head.